

Riviera Syndication for those who don't have time for Riviera ownership

Introducing Riviera Syndication – all the benefits of Riviera ownership without the hassle

RIVIERA SYNDICATION

A LIFESTYLE INVESTMENT THAT REALLY MAKES A DIFFERENCE.

For many, one of life's ultimate goals is to own a new Riviera cruiser. The lifestyle benefits of relaxing onboard with family and friends cannot be underestimated. Riviera Syndication has introduced a modern and uncomplicated method of achieving this goal while still maintaining the balance of a busy life.

Welcome to Riviera Syndication. All of the features and privileges of Riviera ownership in a very convenient package.

HOW IT WORKS

Riviera Syndication offers 10 shares in each new Riviera with an allocation of 33 days per owner per year. In some remote locations like Hamilton Island in the Whitsunday's 12 shares are being offered in each boat, allowing each owner four weeks use per year.

IT'S ALL DONE FOR YOU

Maintenance, cleaning, six monthly details, refuelling, even a laundered Riviera bedding package is all taken care of by your Riviera Service Team. This service also extends to friendly advice 24/7 by an expert on the phone, as well as a Riviera Assist service if you need a helping hand.

TRAINING

No matter whether you have years of boating experience or this is your first boat, Riviera Syndication design a training program to suit your specific requirements and ensure you are completely familiar with the features of your boat and your ability to handle it.

SHARE IN THE EXPERIENCE

Your Riviera is presented to you on each occasion, cleaned refueled and with everything prepared including fresh towels and linen. There is even a skipper service available should you require it. All owners share in the costs of managing and maintaining your vessel to the highest standard by monthly installments or one annual payment.

BOOKING SYSTEM

We have designed the most modern, fully automated online booking system for owners to access the schedule themselves to secure bookings, exchange time with other owners and be alerted automatically if another owner cancels a booked day. The system is programmed to give each owner an equal share of popular times.

YOUR INVITATION

Riviera Syndication is so much more than owning an interest in a boat; it's buying into the Riviera owner's lifestyle. The full Riviera Marine network is at your service with all of their local knowledge – marinas, anchorages, water-way restaurants etc. – at your disposal. Your Riviera Syndication Team are dedicated to making your boating experience easy, safe and relaxing. Make a reservation today and experience the special touches that become familiar as a Riviera Syndication owner.
